An Important Law Book, Unique in Character and Design.

Remsen on the Preparation and Contest OF WILLS

WITH PLANS OF AND EXTRACTS FROM IMPORTANT WILLS.

By DANIEL S. REMSEN of the New York Bar.

Author of "Intestate Succession in the State of New York."

In One Octavo Volume of 880 pages. Handsomely Bound in Law Canvas. Price $6.00 net, or $6.35 sent by express, charges prepaid.

The object of this book is to aid the legal profession when called upon to advise in the planning, preparation and contest of wills. It is prepared with special reference to

- (1) Planning a will suitable to the testator's wishes, family and estate;
- (2) Preparing a will that shall if possible accomplish the testator's purpose without dispute and be capable of withstanding legal assaults;
- (3) Determining when and by whom the probate of a will may be successfully contested.

The theory of this work is that a well planned and properly prepared will besides being a credit to the profession, is a safeguard to the estate of the testator and the happiness of his family, and that when a contest of a will is begun it should be entered upon advisedly. In these respects, it is often quite as difficult, as it is important, to properly advise clients because of the fact that most works on the subject of wills view testamentary questions from the usual post mortem standpoint, when it is too late to correct any defects which may be discovered. The point of view here taken is ante-mortem; that is, at a time when mistakes may be avoided, or if already made may be corrected—a point at which the most satisfactory and valuable professional services can be rendered. In other words, the plan here pursued is synthetic and preventive rather than analytical and remedial.

The plans of and extracts from 78 important wills, prepared by the most eminent legal talent, constitute a valuable body of precedents and form Part II of the book. The wills represented are such as the Armour, Astors, Belmont, Browns (of Providence), Crockers, Evarts, Field, Goelets, Leiter, Minots, Rhodes, Sage, Stanfords, Thaw, Tiffany, Vanderbilts, Whitney, etc.

The charts contained in the book it is believed will be very helpful in the solution of difficult questions where estates or interests in property and their vesting are under consideration.

The author is an active practitioner of many years experience at the New York Bar and an expert in testamentary law. For many years he has made a special study of the subjects of the present work and a critical examination of the most important wills in this country. Much of the matter for this volume has been accumulated by him in his practice during this time.

The Truly Wise Man

The truly wise man is usually he who profits by another man's experience. Such a man starts everything he undertakes with a long handicap over his fellows.

If you should ask any experienced lawyer, "What is the most valuable set of law-books published in the last twenty years?" the chances are a hundred to one he would say, without hesitation, "The Lawyers' Reports Annotated." Ask him.

Many an older and wiser lawyer has in the last few years expressed great regret that he did not realize the coming value of "L. R. A." when it was begun eighteen years ago, as by subscribing then he would have avoided the burden of purchasing a large number of back volumes at once.

We are now beginning a New Series, following Volume 70 First Series, containing 75 per cent more matter each year than formerly, and with every case annotated—at the same time a reduction of $1.00 per volume in price.

If you are wise you will enter your subscription at once to Lawyers' Reports Annotated, New Series, only $4.00 per volume. It is an opportunity which has not come before in nearly twenty years—to start on such a set with no expense for back volumes—and may never come again.

When you get ready you can put in L. R. A. 1-70 First Series. In the meantime have the value of current volumes and don't get behind.

Sample page and further descriptive matter sent on request. Also send for our 200 page topical index of text work, "Where to Look for the Law."

A New (Third) Edition of Owen's Law Quizzer

By WILBER A. OWEN, LL. M., of the Ohio Bar.

In preparing the Third Edition of this popular Quizzer for law students, the essential features of the work (which have won general approval) are retained, with such improvements and additions as are required to adapt it to changes occurring since the publication of the second edition, and to make it more useful in other respects to law students.

The text has been rewritten and new matter has been added wherever it seemed desirable. New chapters have been added on Negligence and Brief Making, and the chapter on Jurisdiction of the United States Courts has been extended so as also to include Federal Procedure.

Throughout the whole work, references are made to the latest authorities on the respective subjects, including new text-books and new editions published since the second edition.

2,925 Questions and Answers. 712 pages.

AN IMPORTANT NEW BOOK ON INTERSTATE TRAFFIC LAWS

HAMLIN'S INDEX-DIGEST OF THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACTS

BY

CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Esq.,
Of the Boston Bar

It contains the text of the important laws of the United States relating to railroads, shippers, etc., as officially printed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, including the original Interstate Commerce Act of 1887 and amendments and the Act of June 29, 1906; it also includes the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, the Act of June 11, 1906, relating to the liability of railroads to their employees, the unrepealed clauses of the Wilson Tariff Act relating to trusts in the import trade, the Acts as to testimony and immunity of witnesses, and others.

To these is added A consolidated index of the principal words and phrases used in the above Acts, a concise digest of the laws, and citations of all uses of the same words and phrases in the different Acts.

As these Acts have been held by the Courts to be of kindred nature a comparison of different uses of the same word or phrase will be most valuable in the interpretation of these statutes.

Changes in earlier laws are indicated on the margin of the text.

All references in the digest are to be sections, pages, and lines, all lines in the text of the Acts being numbered.

The work will be of special value to lawyers, railroad officials, shippers, commercial bodies, etc.

"ALWAYS UP TO DATE"

JUDGE DITTENHOEFER SAYS:

The published volumes of "CYC" are in constant use in this office and we find them a very valuable work of reference in our library.

The doctrines contained in the text are accurately stated and to the point, being supported by an exhaustive number of citations.

The plan of keeping the work up to date with annual annotations is both practical and economical and increases the value of the work by revising the published articles, weaving new matter into the text and furnishing the latest decisions of the courts of last resort.

We would not dispense with the use of "CYC" for many times its cost.

Two New Editions Cooley on Torts

BY THOMAS M. COOLEY. THIRD EDITION BY JOHN LEWIS.

This edition is the result of a thorough revision of the leading authority on Torts by the author of Lewis' Eminent Domain. Eighteen years have elapsed since the publication of the former edition.

Among the New Questions. (1) The right to recover damages for fright and mental anguish and their consequences. (2) Malicious civil suits. (3) The right of privacy and its violation. (4) Wrongs to trade and labor by combinations and unions. (5) The wife's suit for the alienation of the husband's affections. (6) Liability of the maker or vendor of an article to persons not in privacy of contract.

Some of the New Features. MASTER AND SERVANT—This subject has been greatly enlarged. Over 2,000 new cases, selected from many thousand, have been added. NEGLIGENCE—has been exhaustively treated, many new topics having been included. The subject of NUISANCES has received particular attention. Many new cases covering SLANDER AND LIBEL have been added, and the subject in general considerably enlarged.

The author has endeavored to preserve as far as possible the text of the former edition. The work now embraces 2,000 pages and has over 30,000 citations. 2 volumes. $12.00 net.

HUTCHINSON CARRIERS.

BY ROBERT HUTCHINSON. THIRD EDITION, BY J. SCOTT MATTHEWS
AND W. F. DICKINSON OF THE CHICAGO BAR.

This edition has been thoroughly revised and greatly enlarged, is more comprehensive, exhaustive, complete, and accurate in scope treatment, arrangement, and citation than any text book, digest, or encyclopedia on the subject of carriers.

Among the Subjects Prominently Treated are: (1) Conflict of Laws. (2) The Harter Act. (3) The Interstate Commerce Act. (4) State Regulation of Rates.

(5) Care of Live Stock. (6) Connecting Carriers. (7) Demurrage. (8) Limitation of Liability. (9) Passenger Carriers, etc. 3 volumes, $18.00 net.
